

BSW Young People's College

Guidelines

At BSW Young People's College, we aim to create a supportive, respectful, and inclusive learning environment that fosters mental health and wellbeing. This agreement outlines our expectations for both learners and staff, ensuring a positive experience for everyone.

What you can expect from us:

- We will welcome you and value you
- We will treat you with respect
- We will endeavour to make your learning experience enjoyable
- We will listen and respond to your comments and suggestions
- We will support you to take part
- We will provide information about other learning opportunities
- We will create a space that is inclusive, fair, and free from discrimination, harassment, or bullying
- We will raise any safety or welfare concerns with the right people (please see our Privacy Notice and Safeguarding Policy).

Please help create a safe and positive space by:

- Helping everyone feel safe and welcome
- Arriving on time and being ready to start the session (15 minutes before)
- Letting us know if you are unable to attend 24 hours before the session starts
- Being careful and mindful of boundaries when sharing sensitive information in a group setting
- Respecting other people's backgrounds, cultures, and beliefs
- Avoiding language or behaviour that could be offensive or triggering
- Keeping other people's personal information private outside the group
- Not attending the sessions under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- Keeping phones off tables, and on silent
- Not bringing food into the venue.

For online sessions:

- Please do not record live sessions
- To respect everyone's privacy, we recommend you access the session in a private space
- Please dress appropriately and choose an appropriate camera angle. If you need to stand up or move around, please switch off your camera and microphone
- Please do not use AI tools during sessions. Let us know if we need to make any adjustments to the course to make it more accessible for you.

By agreeing to this document, you are committing to a positive, respectful, and safe learning experience at BSW Recovery College.

We look forward to supporting you on your learning journey.
